Encountering New Perspectives

A South Australian Collaboration

An exhibition of children's learning

The Encountering New Perspectives Exhibition is a forum for discussion, a place for promoting and discussing new ideas of childhood and education and a new experience of citizenship.

A uniquely South Australian exhibition highlighting pedagogical approaches based on the Reggio Emilia education principles

Giving visibility on the culture of childhood, the rights of the child as citizen and the power of group learning

Making visible the competent child, the competent teacher and the competent parent in early childhood education
